WaterRing's Free Talk

I finally finished drawing these Hero Academy characters! I had too many waifus to take care of first, sorry 'bout that. I originally wanted to place Asui on the front page, because she's my fav, but decided in the end to place the two main female heroes instead. I had a blast when drawing Toga. I've already planned my next project - Hololive Gen2!! Hope you'll like it.
