

So.. these are all yours?

Yep.. there's a few more stacks in the back, haha.

Classic move, overwhelm your opponent with paperwork so they can't work on their case.

Right?! It's a pain to get through all of these!

Thank God they sent someone from Sector 4!

You guys all specialized in law, right?

Yeah, most of us started out pro bono.

Feel free to take as many or as little as you'd like!

I don't want to bother you, these are bogus claims anyways!

Actually, let me just handle this and you can work on the easier stuff!

Cherie..

You're a pushover, aren't you?

HEH?

IS IT THAT OBVIOUS..?

It's super obvious.

Why are you trying to make things easier for me?

I'm literally sent here to help you work faster.

B-BUT.. I KNOW HOW HARD IT IS TO START OUT IN A BRANCH WHERE YOU DON'T KNOW ANYONE...

I JUST WANT YOU TO FEEL WELCOMED..

Woah.. he shrunk.

SQUISHABLE..

He's like a little mouse..

I understand your concern, but I've been doing this for years now. You're not the first guy to throw a huge stack of paper at me on my first day.

CREAK

Please do not worry about my wellbeing.

A-Are you sure?

Of course, I'm just a temp employee

You're team leader, after all.

You should be asking people to take up more work so you can free up time to harrass the opposition.

O-Okay.. I should else I should improve on as team leader?

You don't need to paperfile most of these.

Digitize everything, Your office space is too cluttered.

How long have you been working this case again?

About three months..?

That's too slow, you should let Crush expedite it.

HALT

Expedite..? What do you mean?

You know, strong-arm them

So they'd settle.

Crush is good at that stuff, use him.

Use him..?

You know, he's from Sector 1.

I'm sorry, I DON'T know, actually.

Crush is doing the exact type of work that he wants to do here.

And if you're suggesting I use his skills back in Sector 1 to do more shady things here..

Then you'll be disappointed because I have no intentions of asking him to do things he doesn't want to.

Ah.. I'm sorry.

What the..

He yelled at me..

I take that he's very happy with the work given, then?

Very.

His demeanor's completely different..

I see..

Ahem?

Wow, it got so serious all of a sudden, huh? Sorry, aha..

No, No.. I'm sorry for oversteering my boundaries.

Aaaand he's back.

I just thought with Crush's skills we can try to get ahead of our competition..

But it's not my decision after all.

When I talk to Crush's flings, most of them already know what kind of person he is.

Is he delusional?

I'm definitely open to any other suggestions you might have, though!

I'll let you know if I come up with anything else.

Or did Crush trick him?
