

Yennefer looked at the lineup of naked women in front of her with a smirk as she felt blood begin pumping into her cock, straining against the legging of her new wardrobe, while her nipples pressed against the bikini top.

Each and every one of them were fuckable in their own way. There were the usual hourglass figures with nice combinations of big tits and asses, while also a few more unique figures as well; smaller breasts with huge asses, short stack girls, taller more well muscled women that almost resembled amazons.

Licking her lips, Yennefer almost couldn't decide which to choose.

"Well, take your pick. Don't worry about the price either, it's on me." Triss said as she stood a few paces away, admiring the girls herself. "Though, I don't see why we had to come to a city two states away just to find some prostitutes...."

At the comment, Yennefer felt her eye twitch.

"Because...." Yennefer said with a growl. "Every single fucking whore in your city is goddam loose I might as well be shoving a hot dog down a hallway."

Yennefer glared harshly down at Triss's monstrous cock while the redhead simply looked away and whistled, a mask of faux innocence on her face.

The two were out currently because Triss had invited Yennefer along for a "girl's night out" in an alternate dimension, which wasn't quite what Yennefer had been expecting.

The two had just gotten back from clothes shopping as apparently Yennefer's old attire wouldn't blend in with the "cyberpunk" aesthetic of the world she was currently in.

So she had picked out a rather sexy purple and black skin tight catsuit, with the left leg and entire chest cut out and instead replaced with a single fishnet legging and small bikini top.

"It's not my fault, they just have small cunts...." Triss said with a pout.

As she glared at Triss, Yennefer couldn't help but admire the woman's own outfit as well. The woman was in a skin tight blue bodysuit that still had some remnants of her sorceress clothing from back in their home world. Annoyingly, however, unlike Yennefer Triss's penis was far too big to fit in the leg of her suit, so she had an entire skin tight cocksleeve fitted into her suit.

"No, their cunts are normal, or I should say were normal, your monster cock is just too damn big!"

Looking away from the woman with a huff, Yennefer turned her gaze back to the women lined up on the wall and began scanning them with lustful eyes once again.

Yes, plenty of good choices indeed.

Yennefer was just about ready to choose her prospects for the night before she saw a little gleam of light among the crowd of flesh. Looking towards it, the sorceress saw a small bob of platinum blond hair that was hidden among the crowd.

'Is she crouching down?'

Puzzled, Yennefer called out to the girl.

"Hey, blondie, come up here."

As Yennefer ignored all the other blonds that began walking forward in confusion, her eyes were locked on the small head that was trying to push it's way in front of the crowd of bodies.

After a few more seconds of struggling, the girl finally got through and stood at attention in front of the other whores.

As it turns out, she wasn't crouching, the girl was just very short as her head was around shoulder height with most of the other girls. Yennefer noted that the blond was probably around 150cm in height as she dragged her eyes down the girl's features. A cute face, slim neck, and a-

"Holy shit."

The girl's tits were absolutely enormous.

Just from the front facing view Yennefer could tell that the girl's breasts were easily comparable to even Triss's, yet her small frame made them look that much bigger.

Tracing further down the girl's body, Yennefer saw that the girl had a nice flat stomach with a respectably large ass, all wrapped up with her creamy white skin.

Riiiiiiippppp

Looking over to the source of the noise she had just heard, Yennefer saw that Triss seemed to have spotted the girl as well, going by the fact that her cock had just ripped through its sleeve.

Smirking, Yennefer approached the shortstack.

“You’re the one.”

“Oh fuck yes, that’s it you slut! Tighten up that little cunt even more!”

Yennefer let out a moan as she continued fucking the big titted short stack, who she had recently learned was named Mia, in missionary. The girl was definitely an absolute steal, as she could easily handle cocks that were Yennefer’s size but still maintained a ridiculous tightness.

“Y-yes ma’am!” Mia said between gasps of pleasure as she was brutally fucked. Nevertheless, the blonde still attempted to focus and tighten her insides further for the raven haired woman, a task that was proving difficult thanks to her oversized tits coming up to bounce on her face with every thrust.

“Here, let me help you with those.”

Releasing her hold on the girl’s thighs, Yennefer reached forward and grabbed a portion of each of the small woman’s giant breasts in her hands, kneading them enticingly as she continued her pounding of the girl.

“Wait! If you keep doing t-th- ooohh fuck!... If you keep doing that even more will come out!” Mia said between lewd moans, as the constant stimulus from both her tits and pussy was proving to be more than even she could handle.

“That’s what I’m planning on!” With her smile growing larger, Yennefer released the girl’s left tit and immediately moved her free hand to the other, expertly massaging the pale breast with experienced fingers.

“M-miss Yennefer! It’s coming!”

As Yennefer felt the girl tense up beneath her in orgasm, she quickly lowered her mouth down and took the large pink nipple of the girl’s right breast into her mouth. Applying pressure with both hands, she soon felt a delicious warm liquid begin filling her mouth as she drank from the girl’s tit.

Moaning as the sweet nectar began pooling in her stomach, Yennefer felt her own orgasm rapidly approaching as her thrusts soon turned into short and quick bursts of motion.

Finally, Yennefer came herself, filling the girl’s already cum stuffed pussy with even more spunk to the point that hot seed was overflowing around her stretched lips.

“Oh god! More, shoot even more inside me!”

Abiding by the girl’s request, Yennefer continued emptying more of her load into the girl for nearly half a minute before her orgasm tapered off.

Gently pulling her limp cock out of her new fuck toy, the sorceress took one last deep drink from the girl’s breast before releasing her nipple with a pop.

“Jesus, that was good.” The raven haired woman complimented as she gave Mia a gentle pat on her tit. “Take a little break and then we’ll go for another round, alright honey?”

“Y-yes ma’am.... T-then I’ll just t-take a little nap until then.” Just as she finished her sentence, Mia’s eyes rolled into the back of her head as she collapsed onto her side in exhaustion from the many rounds of fucking she had received today.

Watching as the girl slept, semen still pouring out of her pussy, Yennefer couldn’t help but give a warm smile.

Mia really was a great find.

“Damn, she even lactates? You sure I can’t give her a try? It’ll be just once I promise.”

‘Now I just have to make sure she keeps that mammoth cock of hers to herself....’ Yennefer thought as she gazed over at Triss.

The red head was standing next to a pile of more than two dozen sluts laying haphazardly around the floor, all of whom had so much cum stuffed into their wombs that any normal person would’ve mistaken them for being heavily pregnant. Yet despite the ludicrous amount of seed she had already produced, Triss’s massive balls were still in the middle of pumping another load into a girl that was currently riding her absurd meat tower.

“No, you can’t. That oversized prick of yours already ruined every other slut we found today, this one is mine. M. I. N. E.” Yennefer said, punctuating each letter with a slap onto Mia’s ass.

“Fine, fine, we had a deal after all.” Triss said with a disappointed sigh as she looked longingly towards Mia’s body. It didn’t last long however, as she noticed the girl she had been fucking was now unconscious on top of her cock.

Frowning, the redhead easily lifted the girl off of her dick, releasing a flood of semen from the girl’s pussy in unison, before laying the girl down next to her pile of cum stuffed conquests.

“Alright, who’s nex-...” Turning around, Triss frowned even further when she saw that there were no more sluts waiting to take her dick. “Seriously? That was all of them? I swear, you’d think with the amount I pay for them these girls could at least last more than 15 minutes each. The slut quality really has gone down lately.”

Walking over to observe the pile of sleeping women, Yennefer couldn’t help the eye twitch that rose to her face at the fact that all the girls had lust filled smiles on their faces, even as they slept.

Turning to Triss, the less endowed sorceress rolled her eyes seeing that the redhead’s cock was still rock hard.

“The whores aren’t the problem, it’s that your stupid dick won’t stop growing!” Yennefer growled out in exasperation.

Triss only crossed her arms with a huff in response.

“Hnn, they should be able to adapt then. This is a service I’m paying for after all. Honestly.” As Triss finished her grumblings, she began walking to the door leading outside of her apartment, her massive cock bouncing haphazardly in front of her with every step. “Well, you ready to go look for some more pussy, Yen? There’s still a few brothels nearby that I haven’t visited. Oh, or maybe I can take us over to a different dimension if you’re looking for something a little more exotic!”

Rolling her eyes for what felt like the tenth time that day, Yennefer slowly walked over towards her best friend with a chuckle.

“Fine, looks like Mia needs a break anyway.... But I’m getting first run of the girls this time! No sticking that monster in anybody before me, got it?”

Opening a glowing green portal with a snap of her fingers, Triss shot her friend a sly grin.

“No promises~”
