

Sanguine Dreams | Blood Riot x Listener Sleep aid

(Written by Tea 🍓 & Kat ☀️)

TW: active bleeding, use of syringes, stitches, heavy injuries, medication, alcohol

Writers Note: Kat used the songs Thank You by Dido and Illicit Affairs by TSwift as inspo for this.

We hope you all enjoy this (sorta) soft and fuzzy side of Blood Riot!

(Audio opens with the sound of heavy rain and light thunder coming from outside, a few moments of the sounds to set the tone, then there is a heavy knock on the door followed by the sound of the listener going to the door. As Listener is walking to the door, there is another heavy knock. The listener opens the door and the rain is now louder)

(pained, but trying to be casual about it) Hey pretty thing, hope I didn't scare ya too bad. Wanna let me in?

(soft laugh) Easy lamb, I'm fine. (smug) you should see the other guy..now c'mon. Let me in before someone calls the cops huh?

(footsteps as he walks in, the door closes and the rain is muffled)

(hiss of pain and sound heavy drops of blood hitting the floor) Whoops, got a little blood on that pretty white carpet of yours. Sorry. I'll get the boys to come by and scrub it clean for ya.

(soft groan of pain)

Hope you don't mind me dropping in. Wasn't close enough to any of our usual safe houses and can't really stop by a hospital so...thought I'd come find you.. Figured this would be the last place the cops and heroes would look. Plus I wouldn't get too far with my arm lookin' like this..

(soft chuckle) Hey...look at me...(kisses warmly) Mmn. Don't worry your pretty little head about it okay? It looks a lot worse than it is. Heh.. You don't gotta ask, sweetheart. 'Course you can patch me up... Yeah, yeah, the bathroom, I know. Be a doll and get the door for me..

(sound of them walking into the bathroom followed by door opening)

(As he sits:) Ahh, there we go.. (soft pained moan followed by a hiss) Mm.. Figured sitting on the edge of the bathtub would make it easier for you to reach and means less blood all over the place. Can just wash it down the drain when we're done..

(As he talks, sounds of the listener opening up the bathroom cabinet door and opening up a metal toolbox/first aid kit and rifling around with it) Oh man. Gotta say, I didn't expect to get jumped by a new sidekick during my first fight with Toga. Little shit blindsided me outta nowhere and got me good.

(chuckles) I was so focused on makin' it look good for the cameras I didn't know they were there until their quirk went off.

I was close to getting that brat, but I decided to get out before the cops could get any bright ideas and left 'em to my backup. (kinda annoyed but light heartedly) You didn't tell me the Commission assigned another little sidekick to your agency. Naughty lamb. Since when did that happen?

Oh you didn't know huh? Why not? (pause) They just got assigned today?..that makes sense (huff) Were they a permanent placement? Hm..Just a temp, eh? Pretty strong one if ya ask me.

Toga said she didn't know about them either..they just got dropped off with the responders and went right to work being a pain in my ass. (annoyed) Stupid firearm quirks. They wouldn't have got me if I was paying attention but...oh well. Gotta make some sacrifices for the greater good...not like they're going to be a problem anymore.

Mmm~? Oh, Deku got to em' and all. You'll probably hear about it next time you go into work. If there's anything left of them, that is. (snickers)

Ah, but enough talk about work. (playful, smug) I knew there was one person in this whole city— no, whole world that could make me feel aaaalll better.

(sound of the first aid box closing) Aww. Look at you and your little first aid kit, all laid out so nice and neat..Just missing the cute nurse outfit. (playfully) You gonna give me a kiss? Make it all better?...Aw..That's no fun lamb~ Thought you'd look good with little blood on those pretty lips of yours .. Mmn. Maybe I'll get you a lipstick of that color. (kiss, chuckle) Guess I got my kiss after all~

(pause) Alright alright, I'll be good and sit still. But do me a favor and help me out of my gear, will you? Kinda hard to get out of it with one hand.

(sound of bracing being removed) Easy does it lamb, don't want to make me bleed more.. Yeah, got me on my thigh too, but nothin' I can't take, heh. .. Mmn?

(sound of boots being unbuckled then shifted off) Hmmn..Look at you, kneeling down to unbuckle my boots for me. You're adorable, you know that? Wish I had my phone on me so I could take a picture. (laughs) Kidding, kidding lamb...I would never do anything to put you in danger like that...(sound of shoes being tossed aside).

Eh? Whatever you say. Pants comin' off, just for you. (sound of belt unbuckling and pants coming off)

(uncomfortable noise) See, told ya the one on my thigh wasn't that bad. (playfully) You just wanted to get me down to my boxers~ (chuckles then cuts off chuckle with a soft groan of pain)

Yeah, you're gonna have to stitch up the one on my arm. Got a suture kit? .. (soft chuckle) Knew I could count on you.. Awww, you even have lidocaine? (amused) Well I suppose you wouldn't be Dynamight's sidekick without a well stocked kit...(lowly) He used to run you ragged didn't he?

My poor lamb...(kiss) Hm? Nah, I'm not afraid of needles. This won't be the first, or the last time I'll have to be sewn up...but don't worry.. I'll keep my quirk held back.

(sound of the listener washing their hands)

Ugh..not looking forward to this part. Cleaning the damn thing always hurts more than getting it in the first place. (pop of a lid) Yeah, yeah I'm ready. Go ahead and wash 'em both off in one go alright? Don't wanna do this more than once. (bracing exhale, snarl of pain as the liquid is poured over twice)

(huff, tense) I'm good lamb...I'm good. (long exhaling sigh) How's it look? I could feel it was pretty deep but, was kind of hard to tell with all the blood in the way.

(amused) I'll survive? Heh, I hope so...but then again, I have the best nurse ever looking out for me, so I've got nothing to worry about. (soft kiss) Shouldn't take too many stitches huh? Well that's good to know. I might not be afraid of needles, but being stitched up isn't one of my favorite pastimes.

(chuckles) I promise I'll be good...and I'll try not to crush the edge of your tub while you give me the lidocaine (sound of ripping as Listener opens up an alcohol wipe, followed by sound of listener flicking the syringe) Count to three huh? I can do that...(bracing breath) Alright. One.. two- (soft hiss as they give the injection) Mmn. Cheeky.... Didn't let me get to three. Heh. (playful) I'll remember that lamb~

(paper rustling as they open the suture kit, latex gloves being put on)

(sigh) annnd now we wait. Hm? Oh you were curious about Toga huh? Yeah, she is a little bit batshit isn't she? But Deku keeps her on a pretty tight leash..she's obsessed with him...which makes it pretty easy to keep her under control.

(softly) Well, we couldn't have people getting suspicious about their Number One hero all of a sudden going missing y'know? So...Toga's takin' his place for a while. We fight, make it look good for the camera...and she systematically starts gathering evidence of the HPSC's corruption while keeping them on their toes. The people deserve to know the truth about their "heroes"...about the negligence of places that need their help, of the quirk traffickers who pay them off to look the other way...and even their own involvement with that...all of it. It's rotten to the core and I intend to gut the fucking thing and leave it bleeding on the floor...so real heroes have a chance to shine.

(soft huff) Only thing we have to really worry about is that birdbrain Hawks. He's a little too smart for my liking...we might have to handle him sooner rather than later...but...that's a bridge we'll cross when we get to it. No way of knowing what the future might bring~ but I do know one thing for sure...that you'll be here with me...right?

(kiss) Good...I'm glad. I adore you Lamb, and I don't think I could ever live without you~ Call me spoiled I suppose.

(soft touches) Nope. Can't feel it. Looks like we're good to go. (chuckles) Nah, you don't gotta count down, just go ahead. I'll be a good boy but.. (playfully) Can't promise I won't bite though~

(they begin to stitch, scissors snip a total of six times through the audio with about 2-3 seconds between them)

(talks through the stitching, amused hum) Heh.. That always feels so weird.. Mm.. You've got a steady hand, lamb.. You know I wouldn't let just anybody do this...I'm pretty used to takin' care of myself or just going to my healer but...it's nice having an extra set of hands and a safe place to go if I need it. (lowly) Thank you...for being that place for me. I appreciate it more than you know.

(pause)

(gently) How are you likin' the new place by the way? It's way better than your old one...(chuckle) Nah you don't have to thank me...you deserved a raise and a nice place to stay..I just pulled some strings to make it happen. (kiss)

Yeah..that's good. (soft huff) I'm going to choose to believe that you being good at stitches was because you had really good hero field training and not because Katsuki made you heal up on your own..

(sound of bandages wrapping and being affixed twice during dialogue)

(playfully) So.. What do I get for being a good boy? ... (Barks a laugh) Hot Cocoa? Really? (chuckles) I won't say no to that..(kiss) You go grab it and I'll clean up in here alright? Least I can do for bleeding all over your nice new apartment.

(Sound of the listener walking away, the shower turning on..audio fades out. Fades back in, listener walking back into the bedroom)

Welcome back...hope you don't mind, I took a fast shower just to get all the dirt and blood off me. Heh, don't wanna mess up your bed or anything. Glad I got that heated towel rack installed too. Nothing better than coming out of the shower to a warm towel.

(listener hands over the cocoa, he takes a good smell of it) Fuck that smells good...Pain killers too? Aren't you just an angel? (he takes the pills, sip, surprised noise) Mn? Haha, did you spike this? Tastes like it's got rum in it..(another BIGGER sip) Mmmn..no not complaining...after today this is just what I needed. (kiss, lovingly) Taking such good care of me...Thank you sweetheart..

(He sippies for a bit as the listener moves and opens a drawer)

(curious) Now what have you got there? (amused) Haha! Did you really get a spare set of sleep clothes for me? (cooed) Aren't you the sweetest little lamb hm? Heh, what did Deku tell you my size?

(pleased, starts to get dressed as he's talking) Gotta hand it to ya' hun. You've just been full of surprises tonight. Can't complain though, I like surprises. Well..ones that don't involve me getting sewn up like a patchwork quilt anyway.

(he tips the mug back and chugs the rest of it down, putting the mug on the bedside table) Whew..thanks for that.. Nothin' like some rum hot-cocoa and clean boxers to end the day. I'll take care of the mug before I leave..but right now? I need some sleep..

(Sound of him flopping down on the bed) Why don't you come give me a little bit of cuddle therapy lamb? (teasing, playful) No really it's legit...there's been studies done and everything~

(Sound of listener cuddling in) That's it, just get nice and close, sweetheart...You're not gonna hurt me, promise...(deep breath and sighs it out) Oh man...I've had some rougher days but...mn...I gotta say this is the best way to end one that's for sure. Love having you wrapped up in my arms like this.

(kiss softly) Do you ever regret this Lamb? Us? A villain...and a hero...by all intents and purposes we shouldn't work...but...I dunno..It feels like we just do. Like two pieces from separate puzzles that somehow fit together perfectly.

(soft hum) You don't? I'm glad...(he hugs them tighter) What Katsuki said is true you know. I'm not...a stable man. I am a bit crazy...and more than a little feral. I've killed people..and I don't plan on stopping. Not until the world sees that this whole system is a sham...that the "heroes" they worship are nothing but glory chasers who know nothing about what actual heroism is like..

But you though...you're so...different from them. (kiss) You do what has to be done...and you understand me and my motives.... (amused huff) I couldn't ask for better honestly. (kiss) I'm glad that you stumbled into my hideout that day....it was..heh..an unconventional first date to say the least, but...then again, nothing about us is conventional...

(shifting and yawning with a sigh)

But I do promise you sweetheart....I won't ever betray you...I won't use you. Not like he did. You're too precious for that...(little kiss) Just...give me the same okay?....Thank you.. (softly) I love you so much....I would burn this whole world down for you if I had to..remember that okay? (another soft yawn, drowsy) Mm...I'll probably be awake before you...I'm gonna duck out before sunrise, but I'll stay as long as I can...

Mhm..You can come visit me later..I'll send a car for you okay? I'll send the location later where you can meet up with it. (tired but amused) we can watch the news with Katsuki and see his reaction to our little arrangement with Toga. It'll be great~

Hmm (soft laugh) I promise I'm going to rest...I'm already halfway there lamb...Can barely keep my eyes open...mn...just being with you like this makes me feel so sleepy...(kiss and tired huff) Good night....I love you so...so much...

(one more yawn and the sleep aid begins)
