

I guess I'm less sad about losing that dingy old house..

..and more about the memories I had in it.

Whatever! Once I get to the Palace, I'm gonna ask the Queen for money and rebuild it on that lot!

It's the least she can do for me considering I saved her life!

Plus the fire actually makes the soil more fertile, I can regrow my farm in no time!

I just need to hang on for one more week.

Hopefully there's no more surprises coming my way.
