

“Show us just how much of a little girl you are!”

As you stood there in just a pair of small panties which had “little girl” written across the front in pink glittering letters, with your chastity cage shown off clearly, you had never felt more humiliated in your life.

Mommy had invited round all of your sisters, aunts, and all of her friends! This crowd of women surrounded you totally, laughing, sniggering, and teasing everything you did. They pinched your cheek and playfully slapped your bum.

“Show us just how much of a little girl you are!” Said Mommy with her stern voice.

You took a big deep breath and tried as best as you could to totally relax until you felt it. The stream of warm pee running down your legs and pooling by your feet. You opened your eyes as you blushed a deep red and squeezed at your panties like you were desperate to stop wetting yourself (you knew Mommy liked it when you put on a show)

“Oh dear! C’mon, let’s go and find some thick pink diapers for you instead! Then we’ll can sort out a little punishment while you clean up your puddle from my carpet”
